GUN TOTING.

The supreme court's decision upholding the right of Chicago authorities to impose punishment upon those who carry concealed weapons should result in more stringent enforcement of that law. The records show, not only in Chicago but elsewhere, that the number of crimes of violence would be greatly reduced if offenders against "gun toting" laws are held to a "strict accountability."

THE SCHOOL BOARD ELECTION.

The school board election held Saturday did not draw a large vote when it is remembered that all men and women of legal age in Jacksonville were entitled to express their preferences. However, the lightness of the vote may rather be attributed to satisfaction with existing conditions than to a lack of genuine interest in the schools.

Mr. Lippincott had no opposition and it was fitting that Mrs. Pierson and Mr. Hopper, who like the president of the board, have served acceptably during the past year, should be re-elected. Mrs. Parker, who is the third member elected, has children in the schools, is interested in the work and will no doubt prove a valued member.

GOVERNORS FAVOR PROHIBITION.

Public sentiment seems to be shaping very rapidly in favor of national prohibition during the period of the war as a means of conserving the grain supply of the country. Mounting prices for foodstuffs are accentuating this demand. Gov. Capper of Kansas recently addressed an appeal to all other governors in the U. S., suggesting that they unite to have President Wilson have congress bring about national prohibition. At least eight or ten of the governors have wired their approval and many of them are voicing sentiments similar to those held by Governor Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania, who said:

"I favor the prohibition of the waste of grains and other foodstuffs in the manufacture of alcoholic liquors not only during the war, but for all time to come."

MORE GOOD STATE APPOINTMENTS.

The list of further appointments made by Governor Lowden in connection with the new state departments yesterday again gives indication of the governor's purpose to select qualified men for the important work to be performed. Samuel Adkins of Bement, who heads the department of agriculture, has for years been identified with progressive agricultural methods in this state and has also made a name as a successful and practical business man. The list of advisors named for this department includes some of the best known agriculturists of the state.

In the department of public welfare F. D. Whipp and A. L. Bowen are men who have for years been identified with the state institutions and have given certain evidence of both interest and ability in this line of work. Both of these men are thoroughly equipped for high class public service. Others in the list of appointees might with equal propriety be mentioned, as well as chosen. Certainly the governor is using care and good judgment in his selections.

FIGURING ON THE BONDS.

The remarkable growth of the U. S. in the matter of both population and wealth was significantly set forth in an eastern paper recently. The article referred to compares facts and conditions at the close of the Spanish-American war twenty years ago with facts and conditions now. At the close of the Spanish-American war the population of the U. S. was about 76,000,000 and today it is near the 110,000,000 mark. Then the total wealth of the people was $88,000,000,000 and today the wealth is accounted $188,000,000,000. These figures were given in connection with speculation as to what will happen when bonds are offered to the country to a total amount of from five to seven billions, in accordance with the recent act of congress.

After the Spanish-American war the government issued bonds of $200,000,000 bearing 3 per cent interest. The entire issue was quickly absorbed by investors and the records show that the demand for the bonds was such that applications came in for bonds to a total of seven times the loan.

Now with an increase in population of 33 1-3 per cent and national wealth more than 100 per cent greater, financial men are wondering what will happen when the bonds are offered. This time the rate will be 3 1-2 per cent and with so many more investors and so much more money available, most financiers have the feeling that even this great bond issue of five to seven billions will be quickly oversubscribed. If this happens the world will have the indisputable evidence that the U. S. has indeed become the great financial center of the world.

FEEDING MY NEIGHBOR'S CATS

(Contributed)

takes in and gives first aid, at least, to every stray dog or cat that comes his way. He usually has several of each about his place. In my garden I have trees and shrubs which attract our songsters and, like many others, have for several years given some attention to feeding and attracting birds. I keep neither dogs nor cats and the birds in my yard would be safe, were it not for my neighbor's cats.

My neighbor says his cats will not eat birds because he feeds them well. However, he has done everything he could to coax the birds onto his premises but does not succeed in his desire. Still he thinks his cats will not injure birds. It is asserted that cats are the most active enemies of bird life we have. Statistics show that all cats under observation, even the pampered and well fed family pet, prefer their meat done up in feathers rather than fur. Now, my neighbor will not believe that his cats eat birds, but almost every evening about the time the birds go to roost I see his cats prowling around my yard and several times I have caught them in the act of eating birds. If his cats caught only English sparrows, I would be glad to have them visit me, but, it seems the pestiferous sparrow is too cunning for the cats and kitty gets only the native songsters.

I am fond of cats myself but more fond of the birds and besides the birds are of much greater economic value than are the cats. If my neighbor must keep cats, I hope he will keep them at home or muzzle them for I think it hardly fair to expect them to feed on the birds about my house. And, if a cat is at all ill, it will catch birds, if it has the opportunity. In many eastern communities active efforts are being made to prevent destruction of birds by cats and in some places the cat is already an outlaw. Sooner or later, our own state will take the matter in hand, meanwhile, those of us who must keep cats should make a special effort to keep them from destroying the few birds that come to our homes.

WHAT THE COLORS TELL.

As we walk along the street,
There's a sight our eyes to greet,
Now appearing,
Stars are twinkling in the sun,
That proclaim our interests one,
Where they're gleaming;
Over door and over dome,
Or the windows of the home,
All hearts cheering;
And our sons will never quail
Is that starry banner's tale,
Where it's streaming.

Rippling Rhymes

By WALT MASON

AMERICANS

Since talk of war is flying wide, and flags hang from the outer wall, I note, with pleasure and with pride, the hyphenated crowd is small. The men who came across the sea, to make their home upon this shore, and found the country of the free is all the blue prints claim, and more, are seldom traitors to their salt, this has become their motherland; and if war comes they'll gladly vault upon their chargers, lance in hand. "We are Americans," they cry, "and will be while this life endures; the flag that waves its stripes on high is ours as much as it is yours. Our loyalty's to Uncle Sam, who gave us welcome to his shores; if warfare comes, just watch us slam the stuffing from the foreign bores." Americans, wherever born, in Berlin or in Broken Bow! The hyphen is a thing of scorn, when there is threat of war and woe. Americans, when shades of gloom are on our Uncle Sammy's brow! Americans, there is no room for any other people now!

COMING TO THE GRAND

Mitzi Najos, the toy prima donna, who made such a big hit in "The Spring Maid" and "Sally," will be seen at the Grand Wednesday, May 2nd in her latest New York triumph "Pom-Pom" under the direction of Henry W. Savage.

Mitzi has an art that is all her own and she conquered critical New York and had it literally at her feet for several months during which "Pom-Pom" was the toast of Broadway. She has followed up this triumph by the conquest of other cities, and is bringing here the identical production and cast with which she charmed the metropolises. "Pom-Pom" is said to be a decided departure from the sort of thing the public has been accustomed to expect in a musical show. It has a real plot and were it not provided with tunes would be a real dream of itself. Mr. Savage has surpassed his best efforts in the production. Tom McNaughton is the chief fun-maker.

TO OBSERVE NATIONAL NEGRO HEALTH WEEK

Local People to Join in National Movement to Reduce High Death Rate and Unnecessary Sickness of Colored Race—Special Program Arranged for Friday Evening.

A pamphlet dealing with National Negro Health Week, designed for the conservation of negro health, has been furnished the Journal by Dr. A. H. Kennibrew, president of the Illinois Medical Association. Today has been selected as "Health Sunday" for the colored people of the country and the week of April 22-28 as "Health Week." It has been urged upon all colored physicians, surgeons, dentists and pastors to observe the week by having physicians speak from the pulpits today and by arranging a program for a large mass meeting the latter part of the week. This plan will be carried out in most of the cities of the state. It is the hope and expectation that all members of the colored race and all organizations interested in the race will unite in this special effort to reduce the high death rate and unnecessary sickness among the colored people.

Special Program Today

In accordance with the above plan a health mass meeting will be held at Bethel A. M. E. church Friday evening, April 27, at 8 p. m., to which the public is invited. The following is the program outlined:

The Call to Service

The people of the United States are called to SERVICE. Courageous and patriotic young men will cheerfully respond to their country's call, but,

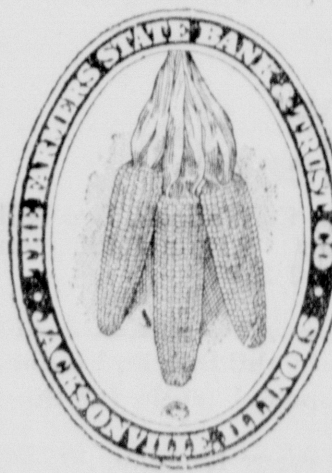

This is not simply a young man's war. The future of America awaits its result and everyone, man or woman, young or old, must do his part. To those at home is the duty of keeping our country going. The young men who follow the Stars and Stripes look to us at home to keep agricultural and commercial America ready for any emergency and ready for their return.

We must each of us put more into each day's work to help replace the work of the men called to the colors—we must deny ourselves so as to add to and maintain the Nation's credits and resources and must organize and co-operate our resources so that massed they will assure America's future.

The bank mobilizes capital—it recruits money—and "Money is the Sinecure of War." It is the duty of the bank to accumulate capital and to put that accumulated capital to the common service.

HISTORY OF MEDICINE

The Morgan County Medical Society Will Be Fifty Years Old In May.

Anyone who has information about any of the early doctors of this county, or of any Medical Meetings or Societies prior to 1866, will confer a favor by sending it to Dr. Walter Frank, secretary of the Morgan County Medical Society, 200 Ayers Bank Building, and it will be edited for this column.

THE FEBRUARY MEETING

The February Meeting was called to order at the Court House at 2:00 p. m. The proceedings were somewhat anomalous. Dr. H. K. Jones of Jacksonville and Dr. J. W. Craig of Arcadia were the regular appointees to read papers and had promised to do so but when the time came were not prepared. Either the activity of the Secretary or the play of good fortune filled the vacancies. Dr. B. R. Malone read a paper on "Calabar Bran." Dr. David Prince read a paper on "Forward Dislocation of the Tibia on the Astagalus." His paper was based on the recent suit in the Circuit Court of Adams County against one of the local practitioners for malpractice in failing to promptly recognize and adjust such a case. The suit was instituted three years after the injury. The subject elicited considerable discussion and especially brought out the fact that practically such suits are always instigated by some fellow practitioner for a purpose as a concluding part of the program. Dr. W. S. Edgar came forward with a paper on "The History of the Introduction of Mercurials into the Materia Medica" which was also fully discussed. So it happened that a meeting at which all the duly appointed were unprepared was supplied with three volunteer papers of much interest which were fully and freely discussed.

MORTUARY

Ross.

Mrs. Fannie Ross died at her home in Chicago Friday according to word received here by Earl Butcher of the fire department. Mrs. Ross came to Jacksonville last August with her grandchild for a visit with the family of Mr. Butcher. Shortly after her arrival the child was stricken with infantile paralysis and died. Mrs. Ross has been in failing health since the death of the child seeming to prey upon her mind. Her sister, Mrs. Rebecca Anders and Roy Anders left for Chicago Friday night to attend the funeral.

Mitchell.

James Mitchell, a venerable colored man, died yesterday at 3 a. m. at the Home Sanitarium on West Morgan street. His trouble was mainly due to the weakness of old age for while he didn't know how old he was he must have been well toward ninety. He had had quite a checkered career and was well known to a great many in the city and county.

He was born in Giles, Palaski county, Tennessee and during the war he went with his master as a servant in the Confederate army. The command went to Missouri the first year of the rebellion and the colored servant was captured from his rebel master only to be recaptured by guerrilla of the guerilla forces who kept him a while when he was again taken by the union forces, a regiment commanded by Col. Eugene Greenleaf, brother of the late L. A. Greenleaf of this city. Col. Greenleaf kept him with him as hostler and body servant till the end of the war and then brought him to Jacksonville. He first went to work for Jesse Newton who conducted the livery stable now owned by John Cherry on North Main street and when Col. Newman sold out to A. G. Link he continued in the same place for a time and then went to work for Gates Strawn with whom he remained for a number of years and then decided to quit and start a hack of his own.

He kept this business for some years and then sold out and for a while was on the police force of the city. Leaving that he has done odd jobs for various persons. Not long after coming to this city he was married to Miss Eliza Clark, who died fifteen years ago leaving no children. She was an aunt of Mrs. Cupid Mosely and was otherwise related in this city. Mr. Mitchell was a man of genial temperament and in his prime few could equal him in training and breaking colts and horses. He was an attendant at Mt. Emory Baptist church.

The funeral will be held at Mt. Emory Baptist church, Monday at 2:30 p. m.

Summers.

Mrs. Sadie Belle Summers, aged 28 years, died at the home of Harry Turner, 607 South West street this (Sunday) morning at 12:30 o'clock after an illness of six months. She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Ola Turner of Hannibal, Mo., Mrs. Mealey Luckett of Foristell, Mo., and two brothers, Robert Crady of this city and Claude Grady of Foristell, Mo. The remains will be taken to Clarksville, Mo., Monday, where the funeral will be held and burial made.

Early.

Mrs. Catherine Early died Saturday morning at 12:15 o'clock, at her home, 312 Goltz avenue. Mrs. Early, who was one of the city's oldest and most highly respected residents, was born in County Leitrim, Ireland, March 5, 1826, and came to Jacksonville fifty-six years ago. The deceased was a devout member of the church of Our Savior.

The funeral of Mrs. Early will be held Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock at the church of Our Savior.

Edward Newton died Wednesday at his home in Chicago. Deceased was at one time, many years ago, a resident of this county, but had been away a long time. He was probably more than eighty years of age. He is survived by his wife who is a daughter of the late John True of Concord, and one daughter, Mrs. Hattie Parkhurst of Russell, New Mexico. The latter was first the wife of the late Edward Tomlinson of this city and after his death she married Mr. Parkhurst who is also dead. A son also is dead. Mrs. Arthur Williams of Colorado Springs Colorado attended the funeral which was conducted Saturday. Mrs. Williams is a sister of Mrs. Newton.

H. A. Mortenson and family, formerly of this city and now of Springfield, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Phillips, of West Lafayette avenue.

COMMISSION ON WAY TO CAPITAL

of American participation. On all sides it was reiterated that the British had come in a spirit of service and appreciation and it was their hope that lessons they had learned in the war at such a case might be of service to this country in avoiding similar mistakes.

Sees Completion of Hope. Secretary Balfour, a tall, slim, white haired man of 69 years, who has held the highest posts in the empire since he first entered parliament forty-three years ago, saw today the completion of his life hopes expressed on January 15, 1898, when he was largely instrumental in averting war between England and America over the Venezuelan dispute.

"It cannot but be," he said, "that those whose national roots go down into the same past as ours, who share our language, our literature, our laws, our religion, everything that makes a nation great, it cannot be but a time will come when they will feel that they and we have a common duty to perform, a common office to fulfill among the nations of the world."

While unable to grant a regular interview before presenting himself to President Wilson, Mr. Balfour willingly consented to say a few words as to his general hopes for the conference and the fundamental purposes behind it. A verbatim copy follows:

Did Not Come to Speak. "All will agree that my chief duty as head of a diplomatic mission is to pay my respects to the head of the state to which I have been sent, and no public expression of opinion on points of policy could, I think be useful or even tolerable until I have had the honour of conferring with your president and learning his views. I have not come here to make speeches or indulge in interviews; but to do what I can that make co-operation easy and effective between those who are striving with all their power to bring about a lasting peace by the only means that can secure it, namely a successful war."

"Without, however, violating the rule I have just laid down, there are two things which I may permit myself to say: one on my own behalf, the other on behalf of my countrymen in general.

"On my own behalf, let me express the deep gratification I feel at being connected in any capacity what ever with events which associate our country in a common effort for a great deal.

"On behalf of my countrymen, let me express our gratitude for all that the citizens of the United States of America have done to mitigate the lot of those, who in the allied countries have suffered from the cruelties of the most deliberately cruel of all wars.

Mentions Gerard and Hoover. "To name no others, the efforts of Mr. Gerard to alleviate the condition of British and other prisoners of war in Germany and the administrative genius which Mr. Hoover has ungrudgingly devoted to the relief of the unhappy Belgians and French in the territories still in enemy occupation will never be forgotten while an inexhaustible stream of charitable effort has supplied medical and nursing skill to the service of the wounded and the sick. These are the memorable doings of a beneficent neutrality. But the days of neutrality, are I rejoice to think, at an end; and the first page is being turned in a new chapter in the history of mankind. Your president in a most apt and vivid phrase, has proclaimed that the world must be made safe for Democracy. Democracies wherever they are to be found, and not least the Democracies of the British empire will hail the pronouncement as a happy augury.

"That self-governing communities are not to be treated as negligible simply because they are small, that the ruthless domination of one unscrupulous power imperils the future of civilization and the liberties of mankind are truths of political ethics which the bitter experience of war is burning into the souls of all freedom loving peoples. That this great people should have thrown themselves whole heartedly into this mighty struggle, prepared for all the efforts and sacrifices that may be required to win success for this most righteous cause, is an event at once so happy and so momentous that only the historian of the future will be able, as I believe to measure its true proportions.

(Signed)

"A. J. Balfour."

tem which uses arms as a means of accomplishing its objects. The mobilization and arming of a democracy in defense of the principles upon which it is founded and in vindication of the common rights of men in the world is an entirely different thing.

Supplement Baker's Letter

Supplementing Secretary Baker's letter the minority report says the members of the committee are laymen and adds:

"In this great crisis we deem it to be our patriotic duty in this matter of increasing temporarily the military establishment of the United States to follow the counsel of the commander-in-chief of our army and his expert advisers."

On the place for volunteers in the administration plan, the minority says:

"Some of those who favor the volunteer system point with pride to the fact that 1,000 volunteers are enlisting every day at the present time. According to a letter from the secretary of war to the chairman of the committee 224,718 volunteers will be required for our regular army and national guard organizations. It would therefore take 224 days including Sundays, or about two years, to get the volunteer forces required for these two branches alone of our military establishment. Does that look very hopeful?"

Chamberlain Explains Bill

A detailed explanation of the bill by Senator Chamberlain was the only long speech in the senate today. Several senators are known to be prepared to discuss the merits of the volunteer and draft systems at length, however, and leaders are not hopeful a vote can be reached until the last of next week. There was nothing to change their opinion that the bill will be passed by a substantial majority.

MONUMENT ASSOCIATION
AGAIN DISCUSSES SITE

Canvass Among Business Men Reported at Meeting Held Saturday Morning—Architects Await Site Selection

The Morgan county Monument association met yesterday morning for the transaction of such business as properly came before it. In the absence of Dr. Rammelkamp who was unavoidably detained out of the city S. W. Nichols was requested to act as secretary pro tem.

Chairman C. E. McDougall said the matter of location was holding back everything else. A number of artists were ready to submit designs and would gladly do so at any time but wanted to know where the monument would be placed, its background, surroundings, etc., and so far the association was unable to answer the question.

The chair also reported, as did some others, that objections were made by the city authorities to placing the monument in square on account of the opposition to that locality by the merchants about the square.

In order to be certain regarding that matter a committee had interviewed all the business houses regarding the matter. It is not practicable to give the remarks of each one but two typical replies are appended.

Citizens are Quoted.
M. F. Dunlap: "I feel that all our own wishes and views should be subservient to the desires of the old soldiers in this matter and that the monument should be placed where they wish it to go."

F. J. Waddell: "If the monument will be suitably planned so as to be a genuinely ornamental structure then the park is the very place for it. That should be fully ascertained and care should be taken to secure without doubt an ornamental structure such as the fund will purchase and in that case I would be very glad to have it in front of my door."

In the course of the visits quite a number who had circulated petitions in the country were seen and all expressed themselves one way. As a sample Dr. Miller of Woodson said he had circulated a petition and everybody took it as a settled fact that the monument would be in the square and he was surprised at any opposition to it.

Several business men were indifferent but said please the old soldiers while the gentlemen whose names are not mentioned were mostly non-committal or opposed to placing the monument in the square at all.

The names of those favorable are M. F. Dunlap, Andrew Russell, Johnson, Hackett & Guthrie, R. T. Cassell, J. Bart Johnson, Harry and J. D. Benson, Jos. Burger, T. M. Tomlinson, C. R. LOCAL MOVIE STARS
COMING TO SCOTT'S

"Jacksonville Adopts a Baby" Will be Seen Tuesday and Wednesday.

The local photoplay, "Jacksonville Adopts a Baby," will be shown here at Scott's Theater Tuesday and Wednesday. This is reported to be one of the best picture features Jacksonville people have had the opportunity of witnessing.

The story deals with a henpecked husband and wife who are having domestic trouble at home. The neighbor persuades the husband to go fishing and he gets into all sorts of trouble. Then Henry, the henpecked husband, receives a letter from an old college chum stating that he and his wife are forced to make an unexpected trip abroad and finding it impossible to take their baby with them, are sending her to Henry to be cared for until their return. Henry meets her at the train and soon discovers that a six cylinder buzz wagon would have been more appropriate for the occasion than the baby carriage which he had provided.

Then complications begin, followed by scene after scene of the richest comedy. Frank Merrill plays the part of the count to perfection. Dick Reynolds makes his first screen appearance as the henpecked husband. Miss Irene Cox takes the role of Mrs. Henpeck, J. W. Larson that of the neighbor, and Miss Frances English plays the part of the baby. These leading roles are supported by a score of others.

MRS. SPRINGER DIES IN PAUPER HOME

Woman Once a Famous Beauty Brought Death to Two Men and Prison to a Third.

Denver, Colo., April 21.—Mrs. Isabelle Patterson Springer, former wife of John W. Springer of Denver, who died in a pauper hospital in New York yesterday, lived in luxury for many years in this city. She was a rare beauty and had a host of friends here, but her charm brought death to two men and sent another to the penitentiary for life. Mrs. Springer left Denver about six years ago.

In a quarrel over the woman in a local hotel in May, 1911 Harold F. Henwood, an admirer, shot and killed Sylvester von Puhl and George E. Copeland. During the trial of Henwood her testimony resulted in her husband securing a divorce. Henwood was convicted and sentenced to death, but later the sentence was commuted to life imprisonment.

Mrs. Springer was formerly a St. Louis belle. Previous to her marriage to Mr. Springer she had married and divorced J. E. Folk of that city.

Mr. Springer, who is a wealthy banker of this city, declined to comment upon his former wife's death. "If you were to consult my wishes," he said, "you would say nothing about it."

A single Coal and Wood Range is wasteful except for winter use. A simple Gas Range is wasteful except for summer use. To combine the two is ideal, and meets the demand of the Twentieth Century Home for "Comfort", "Convenience", "Economy"—All the year 'round. The Duplex Alcazar is a single range, only 43 inches long, in which Gas and Coal or Wood can be used at the same time, or separately, just as desired. It is just the range for your home.

There is nothing to lift out or interchange. Simply "pull or push a lever" at lower right hand side of range and oven is ready for use for either fuel. It is as easy as turning on or off the water faucet in a kitchen sink.

It is a range that is complete in itself and provides real "Convenience." It is not a makeshift with dirty parts to pull out and leave standing around the kitchen. Such ranges are nuisances, and add worry to the troubles of neat housekeepers and the practical housekeeper will not put up with it. She does not want to be a mechanic. Her aim is to lighten—not to complicate her kitchen work. She is seeking the happiness of her home and to that end the Duplex Alcazar is in a class of its own. It constantly grows in favor, as the Twentieth Century Housewife comes to know the necessity of reserving her strength through "Comfort" and "Convenience" and the wisdom of practical "Economy."

JACKSONVILLE BANKS TO TAKE CERTIFICATES

LOCAL FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS SUBSCRIBE TO AMOUNT OF $110,000

Action is Patriotic with Purpose of Helping Government Bridge Over Two Months Period Until Revenue Money is Available—Plan Explained to Local Clearing House. By Governor of St. Louis Federal Reserve Bank.

Banks of Jacksonville are doing their part nobly in helping the U. S. government to bridge over the two months' period until funds are available from income tax and other sources. Thru the action of the Jacksonville clearing house the banks have agreed to subscribe for government treasury certificates maturing June 30 to the amount of $110,000.

It is the expressed desire of the U. S. treasury department, as made known thru the federal bank, to sell to the banks of the country $200,000,000 of treasury certificates payable July 1. It is in considering this total sum to be subscribed thru the country and noting the share taken by the Jacksonville banks that one can see the loyal attitude of the Jacksonville financial institutions and their desire to help Uncle Sam in tiding over this time of stringency. The certificates bear 3 per cent interest and that means that there is really no profit to the banks in subscribing to the certificates as the rate is the same as that they are paying on their time deposits.

Other Uses More Profitable In a community such as this there are other uses for the money of a more profitable kind so the banks are setting aside self interest in taking the action recorded. The request that the banks make known the amount of subscriptions that they could care for was transmitted in a telegram to Frank Elliott, president of the Jacksonville clearing house from Rolla Wells, governor of the federal reserve bank of St. Louis. This telegram outlined the facts as already stated and said: "The secretary of the treasury offers $200,000,000 treasury certificates payable July 1, bearing 3 per cent interest. Should payment for government war bonds be called prior to that date these certificates, plus accrued interest, can be used, if desired, in that way. Payment for certificates to be made soon in New York or by transfer thru gold settlement fund if preferable. You are authorized to receive subscriptions in your district. The clearing house banks of St. Louis have indicated that their subscription will be $4,000,000."

Following the receipt of this telegram Mr. Elliott communicated with the other Jacksonville banks and it was agreed that the local institutions would subscribe to the sum of $110,000, the banks taking these certificates in the following sums:

Ayers National Bank, $50,000
Elliott State Bank, 25,000
Farmers State Bank & Trust Co., 5,000

Dunlap, Russell & Co., 25,000
F. G. Farrell & Co., 5,000
As a result of this agreement Mr. Elliott then sent the following telegram appraising the federal reserve bank of St. Louis of the action taken:

Telegram to Mr. Wells:
Rolla Wells, Gov. Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis, St. Louis, Mo.

Referring to your telegram asking subscriptions for government treasury certificates maturing June 30, bearing three per cent interest: The following banks and bankers here, members of the clearing house association, to-wit: Ayers National Bank, Elliott State Bank, Farmers State Bank & Trust Co., Dunlap, Russell & Co. and F. G. Farrell & Co. have indicated that they will make subscriptions in varying amounts, respectively which will aggregate one hundred and ten thousand dollars, and will each advise you today per mail as to their subscriptions and the amount thereof respectively.

WILL SOLICIT FOR Y. M. C. A. ARMY FUND

Two Thousand Dollars Will Be Morgan County's Share.

Solicitation will start in the near future for a fund of $2,000 which Morgan county has been asked to contribute toward the work of the army Y. M. C. A. for the present year. At a luncheon held at the Peacock Inn Saturday noon, attended by a number of local Y. M. C. A. officials and workers, plans for raising the fund in the near future were talked over. Secretary Spaulding of the Alton Y. M. C. A. was present and explained the plan in detail.

Mr. Spaulding, who is in charge of the raising of the fund in a number of southwestern Illinois counties, said that it is the estimate that $3,000,000 will be required to give assistance to the million men who are expected to be put into the army service this year. This state has agreed to contribute from $300,000 to $350,000 of this amount, and this district approximately $10,000. It was pointed out that the proposed contributions will not be made to the association in the usual sense but to the U. S. soldiers.

Dr. Edward Bowe in a brief talk emphasized the apparent need for the work, and while he did not make the statement, it is probable that the recently organized Soldiers' Aid society of this county will devote its energies toward raising a portion of the proposed army Y. M. C. A. fund. Others who spoke were Dr. G. W. Miller of Woodson, who is to interest the people of his home community in the work, and Dr. F. S. Hayden of Illinois College.

SECOND ELECTION AT ARENZVILLE PROBABLE

Method of Selecting Village President and Board Was Illegal, Citizens Allege.

There is a probability that a second election will be necessary in Arenzville for the purpose of selecting a village president and board. It is the charge that the election held last Tuesday was illegal because the ballots were defective. This charge is based on the fact that under the ballots used a mayor was elected, notwithstanding there is no such office in the village code. Another alleged defect in the ballot was the placing of the names of candidates for village trustees first on the ballot when the candidates' names for village president should have been given first place.

Candidates of only one party appeared on the official ballot and Henry Treadway, present village president, was this party's candidate for re-election. On the other ticket many voters inserted the line "for village president" and then followed with the name of their candidate. These ballots were thrown out by the election judges because they were "defaced ballots." When the votes were counted A. H. Bartleheim had nineteen votes for mayor and Henry Treadway seventeen for the same office. Many citizens are insisting that in view of the fact that there is no such office as mayor in Arenzville, that Mr. Treadway shall serve in the capacity of village president until the election and qualification of a successor.

ELECTION HELD FOR COUNTY SCHOOL DIRECTORS

Elections were held over the county Saturday for a school director in each district. In most cases the vote was very light and in many districts the present director whose term has expired was re-elected without opposition.

In Alexander an exciting contest ensued. E. J. Kumble polled 91 votes and J. H. Boerup 57, a total vote which would have been good for any election. At Litterberry J. S. Hitchens was re-elected without opposition. Dr. J. B. Perkins had no opposition for re-election in Franklin.

In Waverly there was an election in Dist. No. 1. Dr. Walter Allyn, the retiring president and W. E. Swift and W. S. Reesor, retiring board members received election without opposition.

An election was held in Murrayville yesterday to elect a member of the school board. J. H. Warcup was the only candidate and was re-elected. Mr. Warcup is clerk of the board at the present time.

AIRMEN ARE BUSIEST OF MEN IN ALLIED ARMIES

Are Depended on for Instant Warning of Any Sign of Attack—Close Pursuit of Retreating Enemy Made Possible Only by Constant Watch.

With the British Army in France, April — (Correspondence of the Associated Press)—The airmen were the busiest men in the Allied armies during the early days of the German retreat on the western front. And they are likely to continue to be the busiest men in the army, flying as they do as soon as there is sufficient light to see and only stopping work when it is dark, in many cases finding their aerodromes and landing places by means of flares.

The airmen's work in the retreat started with the withdrawal of the German heavy guns. This was the first sign of the enemy's rearward movement, and machines were quickly dispatched to destroy or damage every railway station, bridge or junction likely to be used.

A railway line cut by the skillful use of heavy bombs requires at least twenty-four hours for repair, and in the meantime traffic is held up. Moving trains on these lines are special objects of attention. A well-placed bomb near the front of a train running at fair speed derails the engine and coaches in a tumbled mass, effectively blocks the line until cleared up, and, with the scarcity of traveling cranes for this purpose, requires many hours of effort, the workers all the time being exposed to the machine gun fire of any adventurous airplane pilot in the vicinity.

While contact with the retreating enemy is maintained by cavalry patrols any large massing of troops is visible only to the airmen, and the higher command depends on him for instant warning of any sign of an impending counter-attack.

Close pursuit is made possible only by constant watch, preventing the enemy from turning in force and piecing the fringe of advancing troops, which would enable him not only to delay the pursuit but to make many prisoners. The fact that the British and French were close on the heels of the enemy in the early days of the retreat was largely due to the frequent reports from the air as to the points evacuated by the enemy and direction of retreat.

The first news of the evacuation of Noyon was given by an airplane pilot who saw a French flag being waved to him from one of the houses.

TRINIDAD SCHOOL HAS CLOSED FOR YEAR

Interesting Patriotic Program Carried Out by the Children—E. M. Vasconcellos Has Long Record as Teacher.

One of the veterans and at the same progressive school teachers of Morgan county is E. M. Vasconcellos who for many years has been the instructor at Trinidad school a few miles northwest of the city.

Friday was the last day and the morning was devoted to special exercises in connection with the work of the school. First there was a test of the school in rapid mental arithmetic, addition, subtraction, multiplication and division. Then the teacher rapidly wrote sentences on the blackboard and the school defined the sentences and then quickly named the parts of speech. All grades read patriotic selections of their own choice which was a fine feature. Then there was a spelling match between the third grade on the one side and sixth and seventh on the other and the former won.

Two flags were then suitably draped about the teacher's desk and between them in a frame the flag escutcheon and the school properly saluted the flag of their country.

The exercises were all very interesting and showed that the school had been studying to some purpose under the lead of a capable and diligent instructor.

ALL CHILDREN LOVE
"SYRUP OF FIGS" FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Give it when feverish, cross, bilious, for bad breath or sour stomach.

Look at the tongue, Mother. If coated, it is a sure sign that your little one's stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When peevish, cross, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, doesn't eat or act naturally, or is feverish, stomach sour, breath bad, has stomach-ache, sore throat, diarrhoea, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

You needn't coax sick children to take this harmless "fruit laxative," they love its delicious taste, and it always makes them feel splendid.
Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. To be sure you get the genuine, ask to see that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

THREE MEMBERS OF FAMILY AIDED

Local Woman Tells of Recent Remarkable Work of Tanlac

DESCRIBES HER CASE

Daughter and Son-in-Law Also Helped by New Medicine, Mrs. Marshall Avers

ADVISES OTHERS TRY IT

Statement after statement is now being made by residents of Jacksonville and vicinity regarding the merits of Tanlac, the celebrated new medicine.

Mrs. Minnie Marshall, well known local woman of 313 North Mainville street, is among the latest to offer praise for the premier preparation. She is convinced that Tanlac is a medicine of unusual merit because it not only aided her but also her daughter and son-in-law.

"For the last four years my stomach had been in a weakened and run down condition," Mrs. Marshall told the Tanlac Man on April 16. "The trouble was especially with my stomach. Almost invariably after eating, gas would form in my stomach, making me feel bloated and causing me to belch annoyingly. I was so nervous I couldn't sleep at night. My blood was in bad condition, too."

"My daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Barbour, residing on rural route No. 3, Jacksonville, had taken Tanlac and been benefited so much that I decided to try the new medicine. Although I haven't taken more than half a bottle of Tanlac my nerves are in such good condition that I sleep like a child until morning. I have a hearty appetite now and can eat most anything without having to suffer any of the former bad after effects. In fact, I feel better and stronger in every way, since using Tanlac and I'm glad to recommend the medicine."

"General debility from which Mrs. Marshall evidently suffered is most prevalent at this season of the year," the Tanlac Man said yesterday. "There is no preparation better for this trouble than Tanlac. It has also proven surprisingly beneficial for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, catarrhal complaints, nervousness, and for relieving after effects of la grippe and colds and the like."

Tanlac is now being introduced in Jacksonville at the Coover-Shreve Drug company, East Side store where a special Tanlac representative is explaining the new medicine to the public daily. Tanlac may also be obtained at the West Side store of the Coover-Shreve Drug company. It is sold in Waverly at the Wyle Drug Co.; in New Berlin at the New Berlin Pharmacy; in Ashland at H. O. Brownback's, and in Versailles at A. G. Bates' drug store.—Adv.

UGH! ACID STOMACH SOURNESS, HEARTBURN, GAS OR INDIGESTION

The Moment "Pape's Diapiesin" Reaches the Stomach All Distress Goes

Do some foods you eat hit back—taste good, but work badly; ferment into acids and cause a sick, sour, gassy stomach? Now, Mr. or Mrs. Diapiesin helps neutralize the excessive acids in the stomach so your food won't sour and upset you. There never was anything so safely quick, so certainly effective. No difference how badly your stomach is upset you usually get happy relief in five minutes, but what pleases you most is that it helps to regulate your stomach so you can eat your favorite foods without fear.

Most remedies give you relief sometimes—they are slow, but not sure. "Pape's Diapiesin" is positive in neutralizing the acidity, so the misery won't come back very quickly. You feel different as soon as "Pape's Diapiesin" comes in contact with the stomach—distress just vanishes—your stomach gets sweet, no gases, no belching, no eructations of undigested food, your head clears and you feel fine.

Go now, make the best investment you ever made by getting a large fifty-cent case of "Pape's Diapiesin" from any drug store. You realize in five minutes how needless it is to suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia, or any stomach disorder, due to acid fermentation.—Adv.

EUROPE'S SUGAR PROBLEM TO BE MORE PRONOUNCED

Prevailing Scarcity to Be More Acute in Future—Requirements Can Be Met if Adequate Cargo Space and Shipping Facilities Are Available.

The Hague, Netherlands, April.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—Europe will need no less than 2,000,000 tons of sugar from overseas in 1917. Where is it to come from, asks Dr. H. C. Prinzen Geerlings, a leading Dutch authority. Communicating in the Indian Mercury the results of a careful inquiry into Europe's sugar problem, as created by the war, this expert arrives at the conclusion that the prevailing sugar scarcity probably will become still more pronounced in the near future. It is already certain that the 1916-17 European crop will be a disappointing one, and that in general it has not yet yielded enough to allow of an unlimited consumption even in the countries of production, regardless of the possibility of any export.

The estimates for Germany do not put the yield at more than 1,600,000 tons, or only enough for a moderate economical consumption. In Austria-Hungary the production is large enough for a normal consumption.

None of the European-producing countries have anything to export, whereas France, Italy, Switzerland, Norway and Russia are likely to need more or less large imports. Great Britain is entirely dependent on overseas countries for its sugar. Putting the British import requirements in 1917 at 1,300,000 tons, France needs at 400,000 and the import requirements of the other countries named at 200,000 tons, a total is arrived at of 2,000,000 tons.

Dr. Prinzen Geerlings concludes that Britain will be mainly dependent for its supplies on the United States, Cuba and Java. In Java the crop has turned out very well, yielding 1,517,000 tons of sugar or about 300,000 tons more than in the preceding year. The area planted for 1917 has been somewhat extended and the prospects of the next crop are very good, so that about 1,600,000 tons may be again expected.

In 1916, Cuba and the United States together sent 1,489,446 tons of raw sugar to Europe, and as Java shipped over 500,000 tons to the same destination, these countries alone provided last year an amount equal to the present estimated needs.

The crops in the United States, Porto Rico, Hawaii and the Philippines, are, altogether, a little larger than the previous year. Sugar production in the United States in 1916 was somewhat less than in 1915, while the Cuba crop for 1917 is expected to be larger than that of 1916. There will thus be certainly as large, and probably a larger surplus available in the western hemisphere than last year, and if adequate cargo space and shipping facilities are available to bring it across overseas countries will be in a position to fully meet Europe's requirements.

The great question in 1917 thus resolves itself into one of transport, concludes this sugar authority.

Declares Large Dividend. Christiania, April.—On a capital of 10,000,000 crowns the Nordenfjeld Steamship Company of Trondheim earned 7,670,000 crowns in 1916. To this can be added 1,600,000 crowns received for a new emission of stock, and 1,530,000 crowns insurance for three torpedoed vessels. A dividend of 49 per cent to old stockholders and 29 per cent to the new ones has been declared. The company's fleet has a tonnage of 77,000.

Hotels to Abandon Dances. London, April.—The feeling against dances in public places during the war has grown so strong that nearly all the hotels have decided to abandon them. The last important places to give way to sentiment in this respect were two leading hotels, patronized largely by Americans. About the only dancing in London is in private clubs and at house parties.

OFFICE OF ADJUTANT GENERAL BUSY PLACE

Ceaseless Activity Testifies to Stress of Preparation—State Forces Will Probably Do Guard or Patrol Work.

Springfield, Ill., April.—While on the surface Illinois military authorities are only marking time, awaiting the order of the war department to recruit to war strength or to proceed to the enlistment of volunteer forces, the ceaseless activity of the big force of clerks and stenographers in the office of Adjutant General Frank S. Dickson testifies to the stress of preparation. General Dickson is the first at his office in the morning and the last to leave it at night. It is his policy to clear up every day's business before closing and frequently the lights in his office at the state house are burning after midnight.

Springfield has been designated as the mobilization point for Illinois guardsmen in the event of a call, and it is expected that volunteers would be sent here for training should the president call for such an army. The war strength of the Illinois guard is more than 13,000. If volunteers were called for, Illinois' quota would be about 25,000 or 30,000, it is estimated by military men here.

With present equipment at Camp Lincoln and at the state fair grounds, which will be designated as Camp Lowden, not more than 20,000 men could be cared for, but it is said the state forces would be probably be sent out to do actual guard work or to patrol coastal points leaving room for the raw recruits.

No intimation has been received by Adjutant General Dickson as to how a volunteer army would be raised.

It has been the custom in past wars to call on each state for a certain quota of troops—cavalry, infantry or artillery—in order to balance the force and also to draw on the resources of states proportionately.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

Senorita Hermilda Galindo, Mexico's new "congresswoman," elected a deputy from one of the electoral districts of Mexico City to sit in the session of the national legislature opening next month, hails from Yucatan, the under Mexican law she is permitted to sit for a Mexican City constituency. She as long been prominent in the feminist movement not only in Yucatan but in all of Mexico and in Cuba. The fact that a woman of this type—or, indeed, of any type—has won a seat in the center of the conservative forces of the new State is of high significance. Latin American women, it was generally conceded, had not kept pace in political and intellectual development with their Northern sisters, and the election of this Mexican Jeannette Rankin came as much a surprise.

Minneapolis boasts of three common barbers, operating shops of their own, and one of them so successful that she has opened a second shop. They are Miss Mary Stone, Mrs. Mamie Crawford and Mrs. Mary Dahl. The last named says she makes $100 weekly by her trade, and when asked how she came to "take up her trade" said she "simply got tired of starving to death teaching school." She has "practiced" in Alaska before coming to Minneapolis, and was once one of the few barbers in Japan. This town latter becoming overrun with all kinds of trades, she came to the Minneapolis metropolis. Miss Stone makes a specialty of hotel barbering and has had shaving stands in several big hotels of the Middle West. She also makes money and would much better barber and run her own business, she says than "do the underpaid things most women do and pray for some man to come along."

Mrs. "Archie" Roosevelt, the young bride of the third son of the ex-President, to whom he was married last week much earlier than had been planned because of his anticipated call to the colors, is a daughter-in-law after Teddy's own heart, and like all the Roosevelt family has been interested in preparedness. As her husband was one of the founders of the Harvard regiment and a member of the reserve officers' training corps, she, as Miss Grace Lockwood, was one of the first girls to enlist in the "Female Platoon" at Camp Chase, near Washington, the girl's military training camp under the auspices of the Navy League. Like her husband she is 24 years of age, and since her debut in Boston Academy four years ago had been very much liked among her associates.

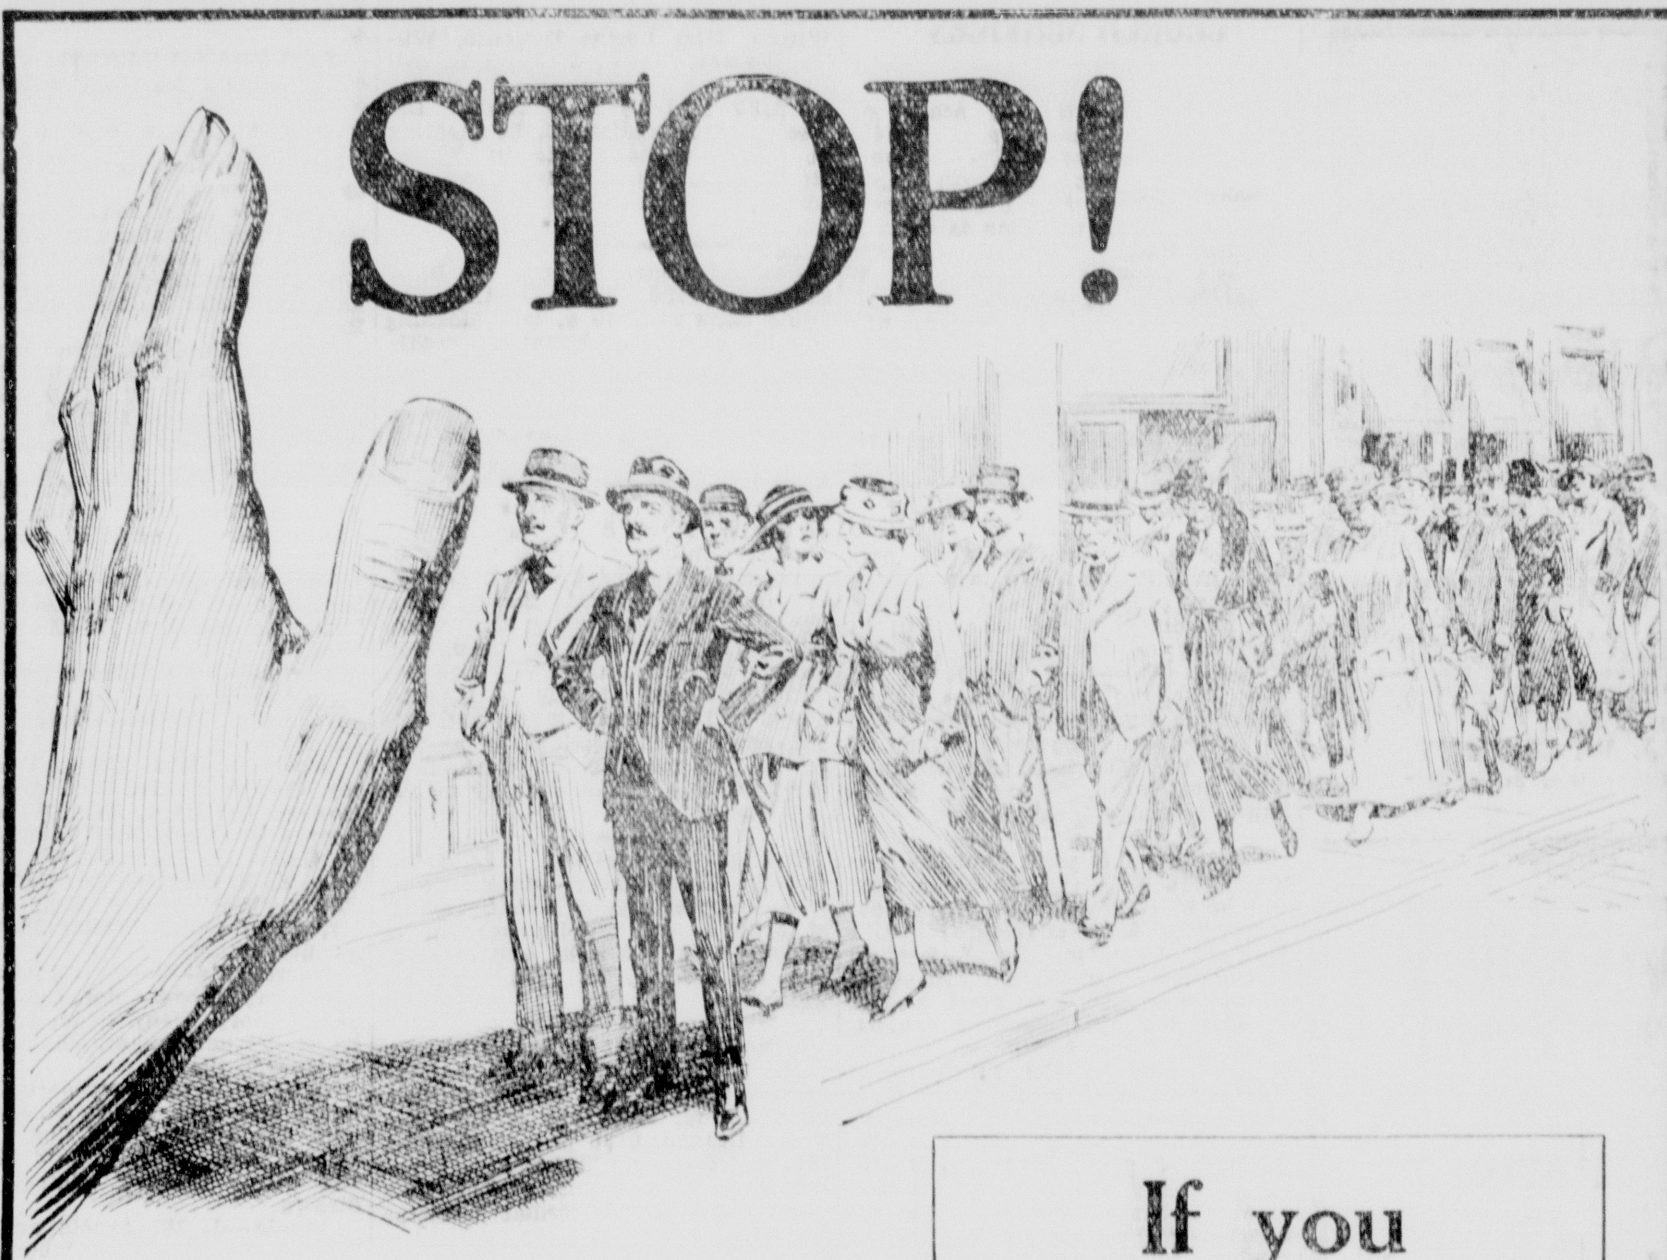

Mario Corelli, the celebrated and at times rather peppery English novelist, in an amusing trade recently attacked the potato violently, or rather, all Englishmen and women that hour the present scarcity and dearth of this vulgar tuber. In the columns of the Pall Mall Gazette, Miss Corelli reminds all these unworthy Britons that Henry VIII, "a goodly king, at greedily, drank heavily, married profusely, but never a potato adorned his groaning banquet board." Agincourt was not fought on the potato. Shakespeare struggled up to manhood and probably wrote Hamlet without a potato baked, boiled or fried. But her strongest argument is against the "potato belly."

"There is such a thing," writes Miss Corelli, "and it is not at all a desirable ornament. Women who wish to keep graceful, slender figures never eat potatoes." The German figure, notoriously the butt of the unkind caricaturist, is a horrible example of what the potato, if allowed to flourish in all its malignant power, can do to the unwary. If the war does not interfere, another great water carnival will be held in Honolulu early next summer and in this carnival women swimmers will take a conspicuous place. All the notable American mermaids will be there, including Miss Olga Dorfner of Philadelphia, Miss Claire Galligan of New Rochelle, Miss Frances Covells of San Francisco and Miss Dorothy Burns of Los Angeles. Of especial interest besides is the expected entry of Miss Tannie Dugan of Australia, holder of most of the world's swimming records for women and admittedly the fastest all-round mermaid ever developed. Her presence at the meet will give the American stars the first opportunity to test their skill against that of the Australian, and keen racing should result at the shorter distances, for the American girls have done 50 yards in as good time as their great rival, and Miss Dorfner has also turned 100 yards within an ace of the latter's best mark.

P. J. Waddell has returned from a purchasing trip to the east and while absent called on Mrs. Waddell's father, Prof. George W. Brown who is in Baltimore for a time consulting a physician.

If you want full details about the new Encyclopaedia Britannica, you must write at once. So few sets of the Britannica are left that it would be useless for us to send out booklets after

Wednesday next

There would not be time after that for you to write us for the booklet, read it, decide whether you want the Britannica, and get your order to us before the last set is sold.

THERE is no question about the practical value of the new Encyclopaedia Britannica. There is no question about the price of it being exceedingly low.

But before you order a set you should be sure that this great library of knowledge would be useful to you.

If you are not eager to be better informed; if you have no desire to increase your mental efficiency; if you are thoroughly satisfied with your present position and income—then the Britannica is of no value to you. Even its present low price would make it a "waste of money" for you.

Every man and woman ambitious to advance, to promote themselves into better positions, ought to own and use the Britannica. And YOU yourself are best qualified to judge how helpful this great work would be to you, just as it is to the 175,000 men and women who already own it.

In order to help you and others to reach an intelligent decision, we printed various booklets describing the many uses you can make of the Britannica. Some of these booklets tell about the Britannica in detail—the diversity of knowledge shown by its 41,000 articles; why it is so complete and authoritative; who wrote it; how it would be useful to you and your family; why you should own it printed on the beautiful India paper.

Other booklets tell why the Britannica is of supreme value in the home where there are children; why this great work is of interest to men; how it is useful in business. All of these give exactly the kind of information you need to decide whether you really want to buy the Britannica.

But you must be quick. For the end of the present sale of the popular "Handy Volume" issue of the Britannica, printed on genuine India paper, is here. The few remaining sets are selling so fast (hundreds a day) that it will be useless for you to write for literature after Wednesday next, April 25th.

There would not be time after that date for you to write for the booklet, read it, decide that you wanted the Britannica and get your order to us before the very last set would have already been sold.

We don't want any one to order a set unless he is convinced that the Britannica would help him. We urge you to know the Britannica before buying it. We are glad to give you all the information you want. But you must act at once.

We shall soon announce the LAST DAY on which orders can be received with any prospect of filling them. If you don't order your set by that time, your opportunity to own this wonderful Library of Knowledge, printed on genuine India paper and sold at an exceptionally low price, will be gone for good.

Don't delay till Wednesday before writing. Send for the booklet today, NOW. Tear out the coupon, sign it and send it in—this will bring you booklet and full particulars about the Britannica. If you have questions to ask, ask them at the same time—NOW. Don't lay this paper aside until you have torn out the coupon—right away.

Or, go and see sets at:

remaining sets of the Britannica. If you prefer, you can buy it for a first payment of only $1 and pay the balance in a limited number of small monthly amounts, as low as $1 a month for the cloth binding.)

SEARS, ROEBUCK AND CO., Chicago, Ill.

Gentlemen:—Please send me at once your free illustrated, descriptive booklet about the "Handy Volume" issue of the new Encyclopaedia Britannica, printed on genuine India paper. I want this so that I can learn whether the Britannica will be useful to me in my work and my home, so that I can decide before all the remaining sets are sold whether or not I want to buy. Send me full information as to the smallest monthly payment I will have to make for one of these remaining sets, also the lowest cash price.

FAMOUS FILIBUSTERER OBSERVES BIRTHDAY

Government of Cuba Arranges Reception in Honor of "Dynamite Johnny" O'Brien.

New York, April 21—"Dynamite Johnny" O'Brien, a famous filibusterer, celebrated his eightieth birthday at a reception arranged in his honor by the government of Cuba. It was a great day for the "captain unafraid," as the Cubans call him for the pain he has suffered from paralysis, gout, rheumatism and lumbago. His one regret he said, was that "Fred Funston" the late major general was not to be among his guests.

It was "Dynamite Johnny" who, on one of his numerous blockade running trips thru the Spanish patrol fleet, landed Funston on the coast of Cuba in the days of the revolution and ever since then Funston has been his hero.

"Yes, siree," said O'Brien, "I landed him on the coast of Cuba. And he made good. Fred did—just like he made good at everything."

The old man who did so much to make the Cuban revolution possible by smuggling arms and ammunition into the island enjoyed every minute of his reception. Scores of his friends, including many officers of the army, past and present, and a number of resident Cubans dropped in to shake hands. In the morning he received cablegrams of congratulations from President Menocal and Vice President Nunez of Cuba.

Lon Mansfield and family came to the city from Roodhouse yesterday.

FOUR WEEKS IN HOSPITAL

No Relief—Mrs. Brown Finally Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio.—"For years I suffered so sometimes it seemed as though I could not stand it any longer. It was all in my lower organs. At times I could hardly walk, for I stepped on a little stone I would almost faint. One day I did faint and my husband was sent for and the doctor came. I was taken to the hospital and stayed four weeks but when I came home I would faint just the same and had the same pains.

A friend who is a nurse asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began taking it that very day for I was suffering a great deal. It has already done me more good than the hospital. To anyone who is suffering as I was my advice is to stop in the first drug-store and get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before you go home."—Mrs. W. C. YOUR FISHING OUTFIT.

Have It In Perfect Shape When the Time Comes to Use It.

Varnishing a fishing rod is simple enough if one will only take the time, and it is easy to make a ten dollar rod look like the expensive, made to order article. The work should be taken in hand a couple of months before the season opens or before one's fishing vacation begins.

The boats and the magazines will tell you to "flow" the varnish on. Forget it. Use as little varnish on the brush as possible and work it out until the brush slides off the rod. When the first coat is finished the rod will be covered with brush marks. Put the rod away for a week. When you take it out again these marks will have disappeared. Three coats are necessary, four or five or better if they have been well brushed out. Polish with a rag, powdered stone and crude oil. Use a little stone, lots of oil and all the rubbing you have patience to give. Remember, the success of the operation depends on allowing each coat of varnish to dry thoroughly.

While waiting for the varnish to dry the methodical man would naturally look over his stock of flies, discarding the damaged ones. Those that are only nipped can be doctored with steam. Put a cork with a small hole through it in the spout of a teakettle or hold the fly over the vent in your radiator. Make a bodkin by sticking a needle in a small piece of wood. With the needle point stroke up the wings and hackles. If the fly is badly stuck together it can be washed in tepid suds. Strick the flies in a strip of cork or soft wood until dry; then put them away in moth balls or tobacco.

Soak the old leaders and test them while wet. If you are a fly fisherman buy some lengths of gut of the same size as the end of the leader and tie a strand to each. Leaders lengthened in this way last much longer. Breaks occur most often near the end, and you will lose only the piece you tied on. This is particularly true of tapered leaders.

Clean and oil the reel, even if it cost only a dollar. Rub the lines with a very little crude oil and if badly worn apply some of the preparations for refurbishing enameled lines. If possible get an old trunk or a large box and keep everything together.

Then, brethren, when the time comes you can repair to your favorite stream with that peace and tranquillity of mind which have been our heritage since the days of Walton.—New York Sun.

BEWARE OF FOOD FADS.

Dieting a Serious Matter, Warns the Public Health Service.

"Pray, Mr. Abernethy, what is a cure for gout?" was the question of an indolent and luxurious citizen.

"Live upon siropence a day and earn it," was the cogent reply.

John Abernethy, second son of a Scotch-Irish family, born April 3, 1794, a physician of rare discernment, a surgeon of great skill, a lecturer and teacher of dramatic magnetism, never said a better thing in his life. It is particularly apt in this country, where the sin of overeating is far more common than the sin of overdrinking. Gluttony, always a fault, is all the more glaring in a land where a plentiful food supply permits it to be more general. The sallow, fat cheeks, the aching joints and frangible temper of the prosperous overfed are far too common. Abernethy said to one such, the Duke of York, by the way, "Cut off the supplies as the Duke of Wellington did in his campaigns and the enemy will leave the citadel."

Diet, however, is a really serious matter, and many people suffer as much from dietary eccentricities and food fads as from actual disease. The average individual can eat good, plain, wholesome food in moderation all his life without ever being aware that he has a digestive apparatus. Starvation to cure a fancied ailment or to reduce an expansive waist line has shortened many lives, just as indiscretion in the opposite direction. Certain diseases do require a particular diet, but this should be chosen by a physician of skill and not self-prescribed. The self-prescriber often has a fool for a patient.—United States Public Health Service Bulletin.

How to "Wither" Warts.

A formula has been recently put forward by a medical authority which, he claims, practically "withers" warts while you wait. Mix sulphur sub. five drams; concentrated acetic acid, two and a half drams; glycerin, two ounces. Apply the paste to the warts on small pieces of linen or spread with a brush at night. Wash off the next morning. Repeat till the warts drop off.—London Answers.

Machine Guns.

It has been shown that in actual warfare a single machine gun, with a crew of four men, is equivalent to forty infantry armed with the modern magazine rifle and is capable of throwing a better concentrated fire upon a given spot, says an English expert.

The Buck civil service bill has been advanced in the legislature we learn from the dispatches. One might infer that someone is getting ready to pass the buck to some of the employees in the civil service.

Time to Pass the Fruit Again. When every pool in Eden was a mirror That unto Eve her dainty charms proclaimed, She went undraped without a single fear or thought that she had need to be ashamed.

'Twas only when she'd eaten of the apple That she became inclined to be a prude, And found that evermore she'd have to grapple With the much debated problems of the nude.

Thereafter she devoted her attention, Her time and all her money to her clothes, And that was the beginning of convention, And modesty at least, so I suppose.

Reactions come about in fashions recent; Now girls conceal so little from the men That it would seem, to get back to the decent, Some serpent ought to pass the fruit again.

NERVOUS BREAKDOWN

Stanford, Conn., Nurse Tells How She Found Health.

Stanford, Conn.—"I am a nurse and suffered from a nervous breakdown. I had no appetite and could not sleep at night, and nothing seemed to help me. By chance I heard of Vinol, and after taking the first bottle I noticed an improvement, and four bottles made me well and strong. It gave me a hearty appetite, so I can sleep soundly night or day. I consider Vinol a wonderful tonic." Edith R. Forbes, Stanford, Conn.

The reason Vinol is so successful in overcoming conditions is because it is a constitutional remedy and goes to the seat of the trouble. It is the greatest strength creator we know due to the beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones and glycerophosphates which it contains, all dissolved in a pure medicinal wine.

We have seen so many wonderful recoveries like this right here in Jacksonville caused by Vinol, that we feel perfectly safe in offering to return money in every such case where Vinol fails to benefit.

GOVERNMENT OF HOLLAND TAKES UNUSUAL STEP

Reappoints Prof. Treub as Minister of Finance After Resignation Twelve Months Ago—Said to Be at Express Wish of Queen.

The Hague, Netherlands, April.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press) Resignation of a seat in the Cabinet following an adverse vote in parliament, and reappointment to the same post in the same ministry twelve months later are dramatic features of the past twelve months' career of Professor Marie Willem Frederik Treub, earlier termed the "strong man" of the Netherlands government, who has just taken the oath before the Queen as the new minister of finance.

Minister of Agriculture, Commerce and Industry when the war began, Mr. Treub was soon given the more responsible portfolio of finance, in which capacity he had taken charge of some of the most important legislative and administrative measures taken in Holland in these critical war times. But in February 1916 he resigned his post as the result of a seemingly trivial dispute.

Dr. Anton van Gyn, succeeded him and more or less took over his program, holding the reins with able hand. Two or three months ago Dr. van Gyn got into conflict with the Right majority in the First Chamber and resigned. Mr. Treub has been called to be his successor and to take up the financial reins again.

It transpires that the retiring minister, Dr. van Gyn, seriously doubted the economic soundness and wisdom of continuing a system whereby the prime necessities of life are placed on sale to the general public below the present high and rising prices, at the expense of the national and local exchequers, in view of the prospect of vast and almost unlimited expenditure being so incurred in the current year, estimated at between $40,000,000 and $50,000,000.

The exact reasons underlying the most unusual, if not unprecedented step in constitutional procedure involved in the reappointment of Mr. Treub can only be guessed at. According to one version, he was invited to return at the Queen's own express wish, in preference to the Prime Minister's candidate.

While undoubtedly pro-Dutch first and foremost Mr. Treub's re-entry of the cabinet is calculated to help counterbalance other members whose leanings are more in the direction of the central powers.

He recently expressed the opinion that the only result of American intervention in the war, as the result of ruthless submarine warfare, could be an acceleration of peace, on account of its moral and economic influence on the belligerents. Such economic influence, he anticipates, would continue to be felt when peace has come, as in case of a big German foreign loan, while he suggests that, if Germany does her worst, the United States might after the war join in giving preference to the industries of the Entente countries to the prejudice of the Central Powers. "I consider this latest German measure the beginning of the end," is another of his declarations.

Despite the increase of Holland's national debt by 50 per cent in two and a half years, the new Finance Minister is convinced of his ability, by means of fresh taxes, to find the means needed to cover all loans required.

Pioneer of Baptist Faith Dies.

Stockholm, Sweden, April.—How comparatively recent religious liberty is in Sweden is recalled by the death at his home in Stenborg, Orsa, of Nas Pehr Persson, pioneer of the Baptist faith in the kingdom. Persson, who was 88 years old at his death, underwent a long series of persecutions from the authorities of the state church in the middle of the last century, and even suffered imprisonment for his religious activities.

He was twice sentenced to jail terms on a diet of bread and water. Nothing could dampen his ardor, however, and his persecutions ceased after the abolition of the "Conventicle Act" in 1858. He became the most widely known lay preacher in Sweden, and founded various Baptist congregations.

English Papers Increase Price.
London, April.—Nearly all the newspapers in London and many in other cities of England have, owing to the shortage of paper, increased their price. A total of 234 newspapers, of which 37 are dailies, have either increased their price or are about to do so.

INCASED POSTAGE STAMPS.

Once Used as Money, They Are Now Rare and Valuable.

New York city was the birthplace of a peculiar sort of money, made by putting United States postage stamps in flat circular brass cases, with the faces protected by a thin sheet of mica. The incased stamps consisted of these denominations: 1, 3, 5, 10, 12, 24, 30 and 90 cent, 1862, and this method of protecting the stamps so they could withstand the wear of circulation was the invention of John Gault, who was in business at Park place, New York city.

Mr. Gault manufactured many kinds to be used by business firms in place of small change, as well as the mutilated and worn postage stamps used for money at the beginning of the war. Many of the incased stamps bore the name of the firm on the reverse side, so that the currency served to advertise the firm that issued it.

Occasionally a subscriber asks us in regard to these stamps and their value. Our reply always is that they are of considerable rarity and not infrequently they command a big premium. This is particularly true of the 12, 24, 30 and 90 cent denominations. These stamps are eagerly sought for by collectors of both stamps and coins, but especially the former, and they fetch good prices whenever offered at auction sales.—American Boy.

FIRST "ONE HORSE SHAY."

Quaint Old "Ad." That Told the Public of the New Invention.

A newspaper advertisement in the London Daily Post of Aug. 22, 1728, a copy of which is in the Wisconsin Historical library, telling of the invention of the one horse chaise, affords an interesting example of the advertising methods at that date. It is as follows: "His Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant his Royal Letters Patent bearing the date of the 20th Day of July last, unto William Chapman, of London, Coach and Coach-harness Maker (for the term of 14 years) for his sole making a newly invented Chaise or Chair with two wheels, to be drawn by one Horse between a pair of shafts, which is so contrived as to quarter the Roads with great Ease by the Person riding in it, without Lett, Stop, or Hindrance, the Horse continuing in the same path, so as the Wheels go exactly at all times in the Coach Track, by which means the person in such carriage may travel with more expedition, Safety and Pleasure both to himself and Horse, than in anything of like nature hitherto invented. The great Use and Convenience of the said Invention will readily be made to appear by the said William Chapman at his House in Wormwood Street, London Wall, Near Bishopsgate, where several carriages are already made."

Varieties of Bananas.
To most persons in the temperate zones a banana is a banana. But the truth is that there are over sixty known varieties of the fruit, with as great or greater variation in character as the different kinds of apples. Hawaii is said to have something over forty distinct varieties of the fruit, most of which have been introduced by the whites. Some of these are of extremely delicate and delicious flavor, while other kinds are used, if at all, only when cooked in various ways. There is scarcely a city house lot or country "kuleana" or homestead which does not have a clump or two of bananas, which grow with practically no care, new plants or suckers shooting out to replace the ones which have fruited and been removed.

Quail Aids the Farmer.
"The meat value of the quail is in considerable—negligible—when compared to the services these birds render to the farm," a bird expert of the University of Oklahoma says. "They prey upon 145 different kinds of destructive insects and consume no less than 129 varieties of noxious weed seeds. They stay on the job twelve months in the year and labor continually when weather conditions permit. I do not believe that the landowners should permit a multitude of so called sportsmen to destroy this powerfully of the farmer."

A Lily of Asia.
The lily chalcidionum is supposed to be the lily indicated in the sixth chapter of Matthew, twenty-eighth verse, where it is compared with the gorgeous robes of Solomon, and its color was scarlet or purple. This lily grows profusely in the moist parts of Asia Minor—Jeddahopolis News.

Husbands.
"The majority of husbands complain that their hands are always in their pockets."
"They do, do they? Then why don't they find there the letters they have forgotten to mail for their wives?"—Baltimore American.

Doctors and Eye Specialists Agree That Bon-Opto Strengthens Eyesight 50% In a Week's Time In Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home.

Boston, Mass.—Victims of eye strain and other eye weaknesses, and those who wear glasses, will be glad to know that Doctors and Eye Specialists now agree there is real hope and help for them. Many whose eyes were failing and many who once wore glasses say they have thrown them away. One says: "I was bothered with eye strain and my glasses, and my eyes do not hurt any more. At night they would feel fine. Now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can read even fine print without glasses." Another who used it says: "I was bothered with eye strain caused by overworked tired eyes which induced fierce headaches. I have worn glasses for several years, both for distance and work, and without them I could not read my own name on a machine before me. I can do both now, and have discarded my long distance glasses altogether. I can count the fluttering leaves on the trees across the street now, which for several years have looked like a dim green blur to me. I cannot express my joy at what it has done for me."

It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time, and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes and be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses.

Dr. Beck, an eye specialist of nearly twenty years practice, says: "A patient came to me who was suffering from Elephantitis Marginalis with all the concomitant symptoms, as morning agglutination of the lids, chronic conjunctivitis and epiphora. Her eyes when not congested had the dull, sur-fused expression common to such cases. Having run out of her medicine a friend suggested Bon-Opto. She used this treatment and not only overcame her distressing condition, but strange and amazing as it may seem, so strengthened her eyesight that she was able to dispense with her distance glasses and her headache and neuralgia left her. In this instance I should say her eyesight was improved 100%."

Dr. Smith, an oculist of wide experience, says: "I have treated in private practice a number of serious ophthalmic diseases with Bon-Opto and am able to report ultimate recovery in both acute and chronic cases. Mr. B. came to my office suffering with an infected eye. The condition was so serious that an operation for enucleation seemed imperative. Before resorting to the operative treatment I prescribed Bon-Opto and in 24 hours the secretion had lessened, inflammatory symptoms lessened to subside, and in seven days the eye was cured and retained its normal vision. Another case of extreme conjunctivitis and redness of the eye was cured and retained its normal vision. Dr. Cramer says: "My eyes were in bad condition owing to the severe strain arising from protracted micro-scopical research work. Bon-Opto according to directions rendered a surprising service. I found my eyes remarkably strengthened, so much so I have put aside my glasses without discomfort. Several of my colleagues have also used it and are agreed as to its results. In a few days, under my observation, the eyes of an astigmatic case were so improved that glasses have been discarded by the patient."

Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by the use of Bon-Opto and if you want to strengthen your eyes, go to any drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and let it dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start, and inflammation and redness will quickly disappear. If your eyes bother you even a little it is your duty to take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have saved their sight if they had cared for their eyes in time.

Notes: A city physician to whom the above article was submitted, said: "Yes, Bon-Opto is a remarkable eye remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to ophthalmologists and widely prescribed by them. I have used it very successfully in my own practice on patients whose eyes were strained through overwork or night glasses. I can highly recommend it in case of weak, watery, aching, smarting, itching, burning eyes, red lids, blurred vision or for eyes inflamed from exposure to smoke, sun, dust or wind. It is one of the very few preparations I feel should be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family." Bon-Opto is not a patent medicine or secret remedy. It is an ethical preparation, the formula being printed on the package. The manufacturers guarantee it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent in one week's time in many instances, or refund the money. It is dispensed by all good druggists in this city, including Lee P. Allcott and other leading druggists.

A Daylight Scenic Trip to California

When you go to California you pass all the interesting points in daylight if you go via the BURLINGTON. A good-matured, well informed guide is in charge of the "PERSONALLY CONDUCTED" PARTIES. He tells you all about the interesting things that you come across on this daylight route. He not only acts as guide, but he looks after all your personal comforts, and anticipates your wants. Altogether, he acts as host for the C. B. & Q. Railroad. He makes you feel at home—the way a real host should.

You understand of course, that there's no extra charge for all this! as a matter of fact, this trip is a bargain that you cannot afford to miss.

If you will send me your address on a postal, I'll send you some mighty interesting reading matter containing a lot of pictures on the parts of the West that you care most about. Or it would be better still if you could drop in at the office and get them, and then we could talk over your trip.

WILLARD W. C. T. U. NOTES

Hate reigns today; wave upon wave men meet in deadly strife; In far flung battle lines stern Death is rife, Reckless and wild the waste of human life—Hate reigns today.

Is this the end? Hath Love from out our world been banished quite? Has Spring's fresh hope been slain by Winter's night? Must Hate now rule, hath darkness vanquished light? Is this the end?

List to the robin's call, Lo, nath our feet the snow drop gleams anew; Look, 'tis an empty tomb the women view; Hark to the Voice which sounds the ages through, "Ye see not all."

"Still I am Life. Nor bolts nor bars could hold me captive when Hatred and wrath their triumph wrought through men I conquered Death, I led him captive then. Still I am Life."

So it must be, "Not possible" to hold Him in Death's bands; "Not possible" for Hate to rule the lands. "Not possible" to wrest men from God's hands. So it must be.

Glad Easter comes; beside the river tomb we learn new hope; Men yet shall love, and life shall have new scope; No longer in the dark, with fears, we grope, for Easter comes. Katherine Lent Stevenson.

All the crimes on earth do not destroy so many of the human race nor alienate so much property as intemperance. Wine is the most powerful of agents for exciting and inflaming the passions. —Lord Bacon, 1600 A. D.

The Willard Union parcel post sale held at Mrs. John Hill's Wednesday afternoon, April 18, was most successful socially and financially. A beautiful afternoon, a congenial crowd, a pleasing program, delightful refreshments and a general good time marked the occasion.

The W. C. T. U. Morgan County spring institute, will be held at Murrayville April 25 and 26. Mrs. Elta Root Edwards, state vice president will be present and deliver an address on Wednesday evening. All W. C. T. U. ladies are urged to attend this institute. All lovers of temperance are welcome.

As an important and potent factor of progressiveness, Gov. Capper of Kansas that intrepid reformer, in urging President Wilson to ask Congress for measures to the conservation of all gain and other food stuffs now used in the manufacturing of alcoholic beverages by passing immediate prohibitory laws against all breweries and distilleries, has struck the key-note of national prohibition. His further appeal to the governors of all other states should meet with a hearty response and co-operation.

The temperance trend of the cities:— Duluth, Minnesota, has gone dry. Madison, Wisconsin, has gone dry. Kansas City has gone dry. Denver has gone dry. Detroit has gone dry. Springfield has gone dry. Danville has gone dry.

"The world has turned against its long roommate, Jawn Buleycom. For rope is chasin' him off the map, but it's in this country that Jawn is havin' his hardest time. At every illition a part of the populace rises in their wrath and outlaws their old friend and conqueror. Half the state of Illinois has to walk ten miles to quench its thirst, and five years from now, I tell ye, if ye want a drink ye'll have to go to Dock O'Leary an' he'll administer it to ye with a drop chute. Drink and be merry fit tomorrow ye'll be drry."—Mr. Dooley.

With the nation at war and every possible source of food production certain to be strained to the utmost, we have neither men nor war material to waste in continuing an evil agency. Millions of bushels of grain used annually in the manufacture of liquor and the 100,000 laborers employed in the business should be farming or ready to fight.—Capper of Kansas.

"The liquor traffic is a toe to the stars and stripes."

Press Superintendent

COLLEGE OF MUSIC

Owing to the orchestra program Thursday evening, April 19, the regular weekly pupils' recital in the College of Music was omitted.

There was a large and appreciative audience present for the orchestra concert on Thursday evening. The orchestra acquitted itself with credit. The program passed off smoothly, with real finish and ensemble. The enthusiastic applause the audience showed was appreciative of the good work done. Especial mention should be made of the brilliant playing by Mr. Jessen, who was recalled and forced to give an encore, playing the "Gavotte" of Gluck arranged by Brahms.

The enrollment in the College of Music for the second semester shows a gratifying increase over that of the first semester and new additions are made almost every day.

We Wish to Impress Upon You--

The fact that the Blue Star Four Wheel Planter has never been equalled by any planter manufactured, and to be positive that you will have a perfect stand you should investigate the merits of this wonderful tool.

Of all the many planters made none have yet brought out as simple, positive and perfect a tool.

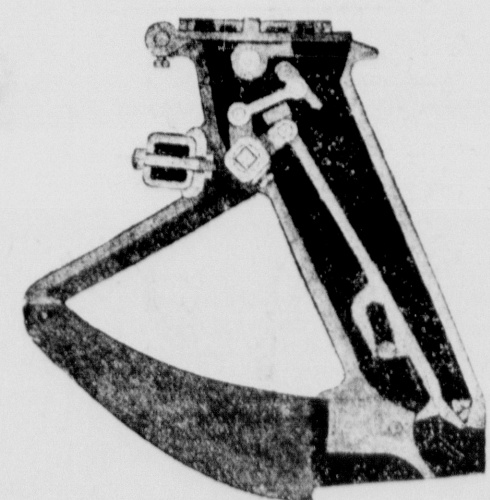

On the four wheel the runners are set back between the wheels, which insures dropping the corn within seven inches of the covering point. This arrangement insures that every kernel of corn is planted at exactly the same depth. It is impossible for the seed to scatter which means a hill so planted that it is easy to keep down the weeds.

Light Draft - Simple Sure - Positive

Look at the cut showing all the working parts. Do you think anyone can do without this fine tool?
